Dear OV Families,

Due to a recent uptick in student and staff case counts in the Oswayo Valley School District, we are prepping for the ability to go virtual if needed, this does not mean that we are going virtual yet. It is our intention to keep all our students in school as much as possible. Our theory is to prepare for the worst and hope for the best. The easiest way for us to do this for everyone, families included, is to distribute devices on Friday, January 14, so that students and families do not have to come back to the building to pick up devices on Monday or Tuesday of next week, if needed.

We will be holding our in-service day virtually on Monday, January 17 to help evaluate the staffing situation and the feasibility of returning to in-person instruction next week.

I am hopeful and optimistic that we will be able to return next week, but only time will tell. Transparency and timely notification are what is important to our community which is why this letter is being sent out now. We will keep you updated as soon as we know what our next step in the plan will be.

Respectfully,

Jed Hamberger
Superintendent
